Liquor Question.
THE ANTI-PROBERTORY MEN OF THE

An adjourned meeting of the Liquor dealers of the wasniy first ward was held hat evening, at the Masion louse, corner of Thirty second street and Fourth avenue. 8 e'clock, when Mr. G. Bishop, secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were unanimously adopted. er gathering in this ward, election distric es were appointed fer the four districts, whose t is to call on all liquor dealers in their districts invite them to join this society, and if they re fuse, to report them to the society. The reports of two of the districts of the Twenty-first ward were read last night: that of the Third district by Mr. Robert Fanner, and that of the Fourth by Mr. Howe. The of new members gained over to the Liquor Dealers' Association by the above plan, was quite large, although there seemed to be a plentiful supply of the "law abiding," who refused to join "such an unconstitutional society."

If: How moved that the other two Election District Committees be permitted to report at the next uncertage.

Agreed to.

In compliance with the resolution adopted by the Liquer Dealers' Society that each Ward Committee shall elect three of its members as delegates to represent the ward in a Central/Convention to meet at such place and time as shall bereafter be erdered by this society, the election for members then took place, with the following result:

ary Smith, corner Twenty seventh street and Fourth

Win. Howe, corner Thirtieth street and Third avenue.

Michael Fisher, corner Fortieth street and Third avenue.

After which Mr. Howe delivered himself of a very fiery and exciting speech again; the fauntical Maine lawite, and more especially against the fluor dealers who refused to join the association, asserting that he was credibly informed that a grand plan was at present on foot to compel all dealers in "spirits" to become members of the society. The time would come when they will regert that they had not done so sooner.

The CHAIRMAN then requested all those desirous of becoming members to come forward; whereupon a goodly mumber stepped to the "scratch," and signed their names in the secretary's book.

The CHAIRMAN gave the following resolution, which was approved of:—

Resolved, That no person who shall neglect to join this society until prosecution shall be commenced against him shall be entitled to any pecuniary sid from us for alleged violation of law previous to becoming a member of our body. Mr. Howe moved that the proceedings of this meeting be published, and that at the next meeting a permanent President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and other officers be elected. Agreed to.

The meeting them adjourned, having concluded to assemble again on next Wednesday evening.

THE ALBERMANIC INQUISITORIAL COMMITTEE AGAIN IN SESSION—ANOTHER WITNESS ON THE NATIVITY OF THE CHIEF—MRS. M'KBEVER'S AFFIDAVIT. The Committee of the Board of Aldermen, of which Mr. Briggs is the Chairman and the leading spirit, met yesterday afternoon in the City Hall, and resumed their investigations into the character and nativity of the Chief of Police. The first witness examined was John

L. Cilley, who testified as follows—
I am salesman in Teffts, Griswold & Kellogg's dry goods store, 145 Broadway; there was a trunk lost there by the firm, in August, 1853; I have a bill of goods which were packed in it; they were bought by Ezra T. Cone, of Albion, N. Y., the day before he left town, as shed them to go with him; they were packed about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, August 30, 1853; he had some silk goods sent to the store to be packed in the trunk, and afterwards to be left at the Franklin House; they were left there by a porter named Ceyle, who took the trunk in his cart; the trunk was marked E. T. Cone, Albion, Orleans county, N. Y.; another card on it said, "To be left at the Franklin House;" in the morning Mr. Cone could not find the trunk; we went after Coyle, found where he lived, and brought him to the Mayor's Mee; he said he supposed he got drunk, and couldn't tell where the trunk or his cart was; he only knew that found himself at home next morning; handbills were istributed among the policemen, offering $25 raward he found himself at home next morning; handbills were distributed among the policemen, offeriog $25 raward for the recovery of the trunk, and Coyle's house was searched, but it was not there, and has not been found since; our bill was $114 for the goods that were packed in it; I don't knew the value of the silk goods packed in it, but my impression is that they were worth about $200; first thought $300.

R. E. Selmes was the next witness—He testified to having examined the books in the Comptroller's office, and finding thereon about 100 conveyances of lots made to the Chief of Police and Captain Norris; the leases of these were sold for non-payment of rent, and were bought by the Captain and the Chief.

Albert lomburd was worn—This witness read a document stating that during a conversation which he had recently with Captain Leonard, the Captain threatened to inflict personal chastisement on him therefor; he then testified as follows:—I have sen the report of the Chief of Police as to the disposition of stolen property.

Q. Did you discover anything untrue in that report?

A. Yes, sir; one or two; I arrested a man in 1852 or 1853 ceming across the Bowery, with a black trunk; he told me some one had given it to him; he seemed to me to be a porter; I watted there, where I made the arrest, about afteen minutes; I took the prisoner to the Second ward station house; Captain Leonard was on the beach; he retained the trunk and discharged the prisoner; the trunk was kept in the station house four or five days; it was then sent to the office of the Chief of Police; it was a common packing trunk, about three feetings; it appeared to be full; I thought it was filled with dry goods or clothing; I have been two and a half years in the Police Department; the Chief states that a person was arrested with twenty-nine pawn tickets; I got the articles from the pawn brokers, and they were sent to the Chief's office; the Chief does not say what disposition was made of these cricies, amounting in value to three or four hundred dollar been absent a week at a time; he was once away a week on a visit to Chicago; the mark on the trunk seemed to have been rubbed off; the prisoner's name is on the re-cord; the man whom I arrested with the trunk in his

THE YEARLY MEETINGS OF THE FRIENDS—WET WEATHER AREAD.—On last Saturday the Hicksite Friends began their yearly meetings in this city. They assembled at the Rose street meeting house, and have continued their ags every day since, nor will they be over until meetings every day since, nor will they be over until the end of the present week. On the first day the ministers and elders met, and since then the commonalty have had a chance. Yesterday there was quite a large meeting, carry a thousand persons being present in the Rose street meeting house. The meetings for the rest of the week will be secret. Next Sunday the Orthodox Friends will commence their meetings in the Orthodox Friends will commence their meetings in the Orthodox forming week. What is somewhat remarkable, we have had no wet weather this week—an unheard of occurrence while the Quakers were in town. One may even now see respectable looking old ladies and gentlemen in Quaker garb in the streets, with umbrells in hand, evidently on the lookout for a rainy day. The fine weather certainly cannot last long. Look out for rain.

s committee met yesterday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in mber of the Board of Aldermen, City Hall, to hear what was to be said for and against city railroads. There being no one present besides the committee and representatives of the press, the committee adjourned till some future day. This small attendance was owing, it was stated at the meeting, to the fact that the notices calling the same were published in obscure papers.

The Richmond Enquirer, of the 29th inst., gives returns from 122 counties, which place Wise 10,687 sheat of Flournoy. The Enquirer says:—The official returns may alightly vary some of the above majorities; but any change will not lessen the aggregate democratic majority.

any change will not lessen the aggregate democratic majority. It is reported, but we do not give credence to it, that Kanawha county has given 1,600 majority to Flournoy. We cannot believe that Northumberland has gone against us. Some of the above returns may be incorrect, but we cannot doubt that the State has gone for Wise, &c. by at least 10,000.

THE NEW YORK WERKLY CRITIC.—THE FIRST
A number of this paper will be for sale on Saturday morning, June 2, in every neweroom in the city. Also at the bockstores of Stringer & Townsend, Dewitt & Davenport, and J. T. Crowen.

The Critic will be what its name indicates, a paper that will fearlessly discuss political and social questions of general or local importance. No man, profession, or subject, will be considered by the writers for the Critic, too sacred for wholesome ventilation. However, the public will be able to form a more just idea of the probable course of the critic, from the contents or the first two or three numbers, than from the promises of its proprietors in an advortisement; but it is thought necessary to mention the above feature of the paper, for the reason that the impression prevails to a great axtent among literary men, that the Critic is to be a journal of the Oyster House school, and devoted nearly exclusively to the Eine Arts, which is not the case as politicians, and "shame" generally, will discover quite soon enough to be agreeable to them. and "shams" generally, will discover quite so to be agreeable to them.
